

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SPONSOR A WEEKEND OF SERVICE AT THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE

During the 2017 District Conference, the Alumni Association sponsored a Weekend of Service. On Friday, September 22, the Mobile Mammogram Unit (MMU) was at the World Trade Center from 10 AM-2 PM. Rotarians and employees at the World Trade Center booked every appointment available and a few were added to accommodate the overwhelming response. Friday and Saturday the D7600 Alumni Association also collected supplies for the H.O.P.E. Village from Rotarians and alumni attending the conference.

H.O.P.E. Village is a residential housing program sponsored by the Salvation Army. Rotarian and Major James Allison collected the items for the Salvation Army at the Alumni Induction Ceremony.

On Saturday morning, there was an Alumni breakout hosted by Boo Elmore and included panelists Ambassadorial Scholar Megan Smith, National Immunization Day Participant Sarah Saville and Group Study Exchange Leader Warren Rice. Members from the alumni classes of 2014, 2015 and 2016 attended the 2017

D7600 Alumni Association Induction Ceremony and Annual Meeting during the afternoon. DG John Padgett welcomed the attendees and RI Representative Nicki Scott officially inducted the eleven new members. Members of the Class of 2017 were Kay Kemper, Barbara Moore, Julie Keesling, Kristi Hunter, Heidi Blair, Megan Smith, Christopher Bryant, Kayla Bryant, Lawrence Eqolla, Vadim Ostrovsky, and Alexandria Ritchie.

Class of 2017