

10 ways your club can honor Women's History Month during March....

1. Invite female leaders in your community as your meeting speakers. Consider elected or city officials, leaders from local companies, or business owners.
2. Invite speakers from a local girl/women serving organization or nonprofit to your club meetings and offer to do a service project and volunteer.
 - YWCA - <https://www.ywca.org/>
 - History Museums
 - Virginia Museum of History and Culture - <https://virginiahistory.org/learn/women-virginia>
 - Virginia Women's Monument Commission - <https://womensmonumentcom.virginia.gov/>
 - Jamestown Settlement - <https://www.jyfmuseums.org/home>
 - Maggie Walker National Historic Site - <https://www.nps.gov/mawa/index.htm>
 - United States Army Women's Museum – Virtual Tour option <https://awm.lee.army.mil/visit/virtual-tour/index.html>
 - Girl Scouts
 - Greater Hampton Roads – Girl Scout Council of Colonial Coast - www.gsgcc.org
 - Greater Richmond Area – Girl Scouts of the Commonwealth of Virginia www.comgirlscouts.org
 - Women Professional Associations
 - National Association of Women Business Owners - <https://www.nawbo.org/>
 - National Association of Women in Construction - <https://www.nawic.org/>
 - National Association of Women Lawyers - <https://www.nawl.org/>
 - Girls on the Run – <https://www.girlsontherun.org/>
 - Girls Who Code - <https://girlswhocode.com/>
3. Donate to a scholarship for female students at your favorite higher education institution. Don't forget to consider technical and trade schools.
4. Celebrate the women in your club – have them share their success stories and challenges they faced along the way.
5. Locate and Support Local Women-Owned Businesses – if you need help locating some, <https://www.uschamber.com/co/start/strategy/women-owned-business-directories>
6. Show a TED talk by women at a club meeting - https://www.ted.com/playlists/192/10_talks_by_women_that_everyon
7. Start/End your meetings with quotes from famous females - <https://www.rd.com/list/womens-history-quotes/>
8. Share Women's History trivia at your meetings or on your social media - <https://nationalwomenshistoryalliance.org/quizzes/>
9. Support the District 7600 by liking/sharing/commenting on the district social media posts campaign.
10. Share Rotary "Herstory" by learning how women became involved in Rotary and who blazed the trails as our firsts. Who was your first female club president? Who was our first female district governor?